

LMU-NYU Workshop on Advances in Policy Analysis

Call for Papers

We cordially invite submissions for the first LMU-NYU Workshop on "Advances in Policy Analysis: Methods and Applications".

The program of the workshop will feature both methodological advances and creative applications of recent methods, and will aim at covering a mix of micro and macro approaches.

The workshop will take place at LMU Munich on December 8–9, 2025 (Mon-Tue).

Richard Blundell (UCL) will deliver a keynote. Xavier D'Haultfoeuille (CREST), Liyang Sun (UCL), Petra Todd (University of Pennsylvania), and Davide Viviano (Harvard) have already confirmed their participation at the workshop.

The workshop will cover accommodation and catering for all presenters. Limited travel support is also available.

Please submit your work via E-Mail to "christopher.busch@econ.lmu.de" by August 3, 2025 using the subject line "LMU-NYU WORKSHOP".

We look forward to your submissions!
